There aren't many people these days who could pull off material this radiant and heartbreaking.

Blue breaks the heart with the aching prettiness of her singing; it's almost too lovely for this world.

Julie Blue's 'One Of A Kind Woman' CD is Now Available! (listen)

Just as its title promises, Julie Blue is, indeed, a One of a Kind Woman on this beautifully crafted and sweetly-scented album. With a voice as sultry as Sade's and as dreamy as Dido's, Blue unites the world of jazz, blues, pop, and soul with tasteful and deliciously inviting compositions.

This is a CD that continuously surprises and delights as it goes along. To say that I'm merely in love with it is an understatement.

Bio

Born in Calgary, Julie Blue started playing piano at the age of five. By the time she was seventeen, she was playing and singing professionally. Julie completed training in jazz at Capilano College in Vancouver. She has had years of study in jazz, classical music and voice.

Julie's performances have taken her to the U.S., Africa, Australia, Mexico, Spain, the Caribbean and Japan. She has just released her 6th original CD entitled 'One of A Kind Woman' at 2 sold out concerts in Vancouver. She currently performs at festivals and concerts with her trio or quartet of world-class musicians including multi instrumentalist Joseph Pepe Danza and renowned bassist Laurence Mollerup. Her instrumental CDs Shining Through and Heart of the River, are selling internationally.

Julie's current projects include a performance as Musical Keynote for Goldie Hawn's Bright Light Foundation fundraising event, Matthew Fox's Earth Revival Cosmic Mass, and Neale Donald Walsch world tour. She also performed at the Minerva Foundation's Life in Balance forum, and the International conference of both Noetic Science and Religious Science. She was a featured artist at the International Unity Conference in Kansas City, was part of the grand opening of the new R.O.M. museum in Toronto and performed at the Edge of the World festival in the Queen Charlotte Island.

She founded the Singspiration Creative Empowerment Programs in 1989 and has touched thousands of people through her Healing Sound and Songwriting Performance courses. Julie also writes music for and directs a 70-voice gospel choir, "The Singspiration Singers". Julie Blue has also artistically directed many shows and concerts over the span of her career. She continues her fifth year of performances as Motivational Presenter at Harv Eker's Enlightened Warrior Camps in Canada and the USA.

Julie's film composing credits include award-winning documentaries "Close to the Heart", "Stolen Lives" (which was the recipient of a Leo award), and "Life and Times of Alex Trebeck" and "Shipyard Lament" for CBC. Her current projects include "Traveling at the Speed of Life" an Ocean Playground Productions feature film, a National Film Board's documentary called "My Father, My Teacher", and a PBS documentary called "Pete: Moving Man –Made Mountains:

Julie is a woman who lives her passion for music, song, nature, and life itself.

"Julie Blue is a professional singer of the highest caliber. She is confident, unique, warm and easy to work with – it was a pleasure to have her at our event. Many of the participants experienced significant personal breakthroughs as a result of Julie's exemplary expressive coaching and asked to have three pieces on video to treasure as a turning point in their lives."

Album Media Reviews

“One of a Kind Woman”

“Norah Jones may get all the Grammys yet I find myself being more attracted to Blue’s voice, which is rich with texture and laced with palpable emotion. The meltingly gorgeous soulfulness of “Something Guiding Us On” truly moves and elevates our inner core. One is left playing this record repeatedly for the positive vibrations it emits every time it plays.”

Adam Harrington, Whisperin & Hollerin UK

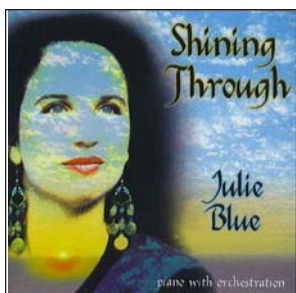

“Wing & A Prayer”

“The real star here is Blue’s effective vocal prowess. Having spent most of her adult life teaching others how to find their voice, Blue has inadvertently found hers in creating a treasure which encompasses both her talents and spiritual beliefs. The whole CD has a...special poignancy that’s bound to make you feel a little more comfortable in your skin.”

John Beaudin, Shared Vision Magazine

“Wing and a Prayer, Julie’s first singer-songwriter release after four albums of solo piano, soars with beautiful melodies and inspired lyrics.”

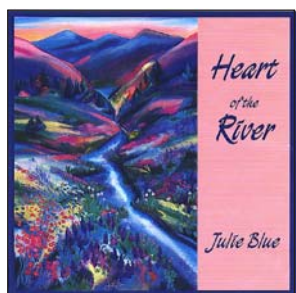

Lorne Mallin, The Vancouver Province

“Shining Through”

“From the opening track, Of Consciousness & Light, Blue’s solo piano shines through her latest album. The Vancouver musician and composer writes with deep understanding and plays with strength, clarity and remarkable subtlety. The music is always hopeful, always holding out the opportunity for renewal - what better way to greet the spring. 4 stars.”

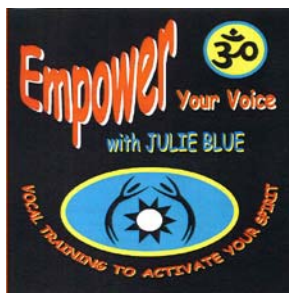

Lorne Mallin, The Vancouver Province

“Heart of the River”

“Heart of the River is simply beautiful instrumental music that creates a lovely space for the listener. Superbly played grand piano is textured with luscious cello, soaring flute and sax, exquisite acoustic guitar, tasteful synthesizer and percussion, and just a touch of voice that moves to a place beyond words.”
