As a Performer:

“Julie Blue possesses a fabulous spirit, which expresses itself in her music. It was wonderful to see her work with the people who came to our Peace in the City celebration. Spontaneously Julie facilitated a closing ritual, which brought us all together, from our varied religious and spiritual backgrounds to share in unity in the spirit. Her music is transformational, touching people in their deepest humanity.”

Rev. Bruce Sanguin

“Not only is Julie Blue a gifted musician, she is also a highly gifted facilitator. It is rare to have two such talents. Julie weaves her magic and inspires audiences with her heartfelt stories and music.”

As a Recording Artist:

“Wing and a Prayer, Julie’s first singer-songwriter release after four albums of solo piano, soars with beautiful melodies and inspired lyrics.”

“The real star here is Blue’s effective vocal prowess. Having spent most of her adult life teaching others how to find their voice, Blue has inadvertently found hers in creating a treasure, which encompasses both her talents and spiritual beliefs. This whole CD has a catchy sing along connectedness to it and a special poignancy that’s bound to make you feel a little more comfortable in your skin.”

As a Facilitator:

“Julie Blue is a professional singer of the highest caliber. She is confident, unique, warm and easy to work with – it was a pleasure to have her at our event. Many of the participants experienced significant personal breakthroughs as a result of Julie’s exemplary expressive coaching and asked to have three pieces on video to treasure as a turning point in their lives.”

“Your presentation at Warrior Camp in August was one of the most empowering and fun experiences of the week for me. The experience put me in touch with a great source and center of Joy that I hadn’t encountered before. The sounding exercises we did allowed me to release that joy and feel a powerful connection with Spirit. I felt as if my voice and I had become a conduit of power. I had never heard my voice sound like that before and it was thrilling! Thank you for sharing your insight and skill with us.”

As a Composer:

“Julie is a brilliant and intuitive composer. She can capture a moment or manufacture one. Her music adds dimension to the story and underlines the images in vibrant color and feeling.”

"On our pilot "The Rev", music was integral to the production, so we called upon Julie to not only score the pilot but also create the songs for playback during production. Her versatility and energy elevated the show to a level that exceeded all expectations. In addition to all the planned music, Julie had to come up with one more original song at the last minute -- and she did it overnight! Easily the most talented composer-musician-artist I've ever worked with."
